Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. Claims 1,4 and 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The limitation "exhibiting a small degree of warp after heat treatment" is considered new matter. The disclosure fails to define the relative terminology "small degree".

3. Claims 1,4,5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The relative terminology "small degree" is considered to render the claims indefinite since the meets and bounds of the claims cannot be determined. The disclosure is silent as to what quantitative value is considered to be encompassed by small degree. One of ordinary skill in the art would not be able to determine what is encompassed by the terminology.

Claim 4, "the sintered body" lacks antecedent basis.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102 and 103

4. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

5. Claims 1,4 and 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Harris et al (5,424,261), Chiao (5,540,884), Yasumoto et al (4,963,701), Sugiura et al (5,165,983) and Japanese document 08157265, each taken alone, for reasons of record.

6. Claims 1,4 and 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a or e) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Harris et al (5,773,377), for reasons of record.

The terminology "small degree of warp after heat treatment" is considered qualitative and not sufficiently defined in the disclosure to patentably distinguish from the aluminum nitride bodies of the prior art. It is not clear how one of ordinary skill in the art could determine the amount of warp that would be required to be encompassed by the instant claims and how much warp is not encompassed by the instant claims. Differences in the processing parameters are also argued by applicants however applicants have not shown by way of tangible evidence that differences in processing parameters distinguish the claimed product from the prior art and that the claims reflect these differences. Use of a setter or a certain type of setter and other processing parameters are considered a process limitations and do not patentably distinguish the claimed product.

"The patentability of a product does not depend upon its method of production. If the product in [a] product-by-process claim is the same as or obvious from a product of the prior art, [then] the claim is unpatentable even though the prior [art] product was made by a different process." In re Thorpe, 227 USPQ 964, 966 (Fed. Cir. 1985) (citations omitted). Once the examiner provides a rationale tending to show that the claimed product appears to be the same or similar to that of the prior art, although produced by a different process, the burden shifts to applicant to come forward with evidence establishing an unobvious difference between the claimed product and the prior art product. In re Marosi, 218 USPQ 289, 292 (Fed. Cir. 1983).

Conclusion

7. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
